BISBEE NEWS.

Daily Happenings at the Great Copper Camp.

Budget of Interesting Items from our Regular Correspondent.

Bisbee, July 29, 1896.

COPPERING.

Joe Scott is slightly indisposed. It is probably a case of spring fever.

There are quite a number of cattle-men in town and we understand quite a shipment of Turkey track cattle is to be made.

These Wattleys who have been rather ill for some time was noticed about town yesterday. We hope to see him strong and well again soon.

A social and banquet was given at the Williams residence last night by Mr. Lewis Williams. There were quite a number present and all enjoyed themselves to the utmost.

As noted in yesterday's column, Dan Barnes and Fred Henry have returned from Santa Monica. They both express themselves well pleased with their vacation and declare Southern California to be the only place for an outing. Dan tells us that the bathing was delightful and says he was in the surf daily. Fred however assures us that he is laboring under a hallucination, and declares that the only place he saw Mr. Barnes, except at meal times, was under the trees on Ocean avenue boulevard busily engaged in swapping lies with some old comrade. Dan emphatically denied this assertion and confidentially told us that Mr. Henry was so busily engaged trying to catch an heiress that he didn't even know his friends when he saw them. We think both the gentlemen have been a little hazy in their assertions and trust they will fix the matter up to their entire satisfaction. We have no doubt that they thoroughly enjoyed themselves as their healthy faces and browned complexions are evidences on that point.

Incidents of the picnic enjoyed by the crew of Engine No. 1 last Thursday night have just come to our notice and we think the story of their privations will not be altogether amusing even at this late date. Owing to the inclement weather and the uncertain condition of the track they were compelled to detrack at Packard station on the approach of darkness. They had not figured on being out all night and were now staring in the face by the outlook of a night in a box car with nothing but an empty stomach to console them. Some of the party however are of a nature not easily put out and accordingly while the balance of the party rattled a tale of boy for boys, one friend, Omaha and Frank Armstrong started on a quiet hunt for a supper. What they expected to find with no weapons but a rock and a shillelagh is a mystery even to themselves, but after tramping around for about an hour they finally ran across a poor little cotton-tail rabbit who had fallen in a waterhole and was half-drowned. Mr. Omaha made short work of the poor little fellow and they returned to camp with the spoils. We have no positive information that they ate him and all, but we can readily imagine the result of five hungry railroad men dining off one poor little half-starved rabbit. After this sumptuous repast they took possession of their downy couches and put in the night in close communion with a nightmare in which they imagined that they were members of the Billionaire's Club and were suffering from an acute attack of gout.

Marvelous Results.

From a letter written by Rev. J. Gundersen, of Dimondale, Mich., we are permitted to make this extract: "I have no hesitation in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery, as the result was almost marvellous in the case of my wife. While I was pastor of the Baptist Church at Rivers Junction she was brought down with Pneumonia, accompanied by Croup. Terrible paroxysms of coughing would last hours with little intermission and it seemed as if she could not survive them. A friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery; it was quick in its work and highly satisfactory in results." Trial bottles free at Tombstone and any Drug Store. Regular size $2.00 and $1.00.
